

Academy announces new member benefit offered through OMEGA Processing Solutions

The Academy of Medicine of Cincinnati and OMEGA Processing Solutions have joined together to provide Academy members with cost saving processing services. Named as a preferred vendor for Academy members earlier this month, OMEGA provides 24-hour, seven-days-a-week technical support and customer service, customized solutions for clientele, wholesale rates and solutions, along with local service and support. The growing payment processing solutions provider has been named to the Business Courier's Fast 55, is a three-time designee for the Northern Kentucky Emerging 30, and is a member of the Better Business Bureau.

"We are honored to be named as a preferred vendor for the Academy of Medicine of Cincinnati and look forward to providing top-notch services and customer care for each member," CEO of OMEGA Processing Solutions Scott Anderson said. "To be paired with a professional organization of such caliber as the Academy, is a testament to our experience and accomplishments in the payments industry."

"We've put together a unique program specifically designed to meet the needs of Academy members and serve the medical field," OMEGA Managing Partner for Ohio Brad Arnott said. "OMEGA's team recognizes the specialized services that the medical industry needs, and we will provide the utmost level of service to all Academy members."

Academy of Medicine of Cincinnati members will be eligible to receive the following from OMEGA Processing Solutions:

- Wholesale Visa, MasterCard, and Discover credit card processing rates
- Free analysis and comparison of current processing fees and services
- OMEGA's Price Service Guarantee
- A 25% discount on the listed price for equipment and software
- Web-based solutions specifically designed for recurring payment options, customized payment plans, and customer billing
- Local service and support 24/7
- Waived application and setup fees
- Check processing solutions and verification

"The Academy of Medicine is pleased to offer its members yet another savings-based member benefit. Choosing OMEGA as a preferred vendor increases members' options in selecting a processing solutions company that offers both service and value," said Academy Executive Director Donna Gilliam.

Academy members can take advantage of OMEGA services specifically designed for them by contacting Brad Arnott at 513-755-6501 or via email at brad@omegap.com. For more information about OMEGA Processing Solutions, visit www.omegap.com.
